UNDER THE WHEELS. George Rose Painfully Injured in the Union Pacific Yards Yesterday Morning.

He is Pinned to the Ground by the Trucks and Jack Screws Have to be Used to Extricate Him.

A painful accident occurred in the upper yards of the Union Pacific road yesterday morning about 5:30 o'clock.

George Rose, a switchman, stepped in between two cars to make a coupling. In some way his foot slipped and he was thrown upon the track in such a manner that the wheels of the forward truck of an empty freight car passed over his limbs. The car was thrown from the track, and the wheels remained on top of Rose.

FINING HIM TO THE GROUND in such a manner that it was impossible for him to extricate himself.

Help soon arrived and it was found necessary to procure two jack screws and place one under either side of the car and raise it up before he could be taken out.

He bore the torture bravely and uncomplainingly until the work was completed and he was lifted from the track in a MANGLED AND BLEEDING condition and taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

Dr. Horton and Galbraith were summoned and were soon by the injured man's side.

At first it was thought that his right arm and leg would have to be amputated, but subsequent examination proved that both might be saved.

He was badly bruised all over his body. His face was scratched and his body was covered with FLESH WOUNDS.

but not necessarily of a serious nature. It was found that two of the toes upon his right foot were fractured while his right arm had sustained a compound fracture.

There was a bad gash in the rectum made by a bolt or other blunt instrument. He was fixed up and made as comfortable as possible and the opinion of the physicians is that he will soon recover.

The wounded man is about thirty years of age and unmarried. He has been in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad company about one year and was regarded as one of the best switchmen in their employ. He was always attending to business and a careful and competent man.

While the Union Pacific yards are very extensive ones, they are among the most fortunate ones in the United States. There has not been a man killed in the yards in this city since four years ago last winter and very few have been injured.

Then taking into consideration the fact that the yards are not level but are built upon side hills, making it a very hard matter to stop cars, it is indeed wonderful that more accidents do not occur.

The switchmen in this city are all steady and very careful men, which, no doubt, accounts for the scarcity of accidents.

THE PRIZE FIGHTERS.

Efforts of Hanley's Attorneys to Evade the Law's Technicalities - A Claim That There Was No Purse - The Trial Must Proceed.

Special despatch to the Bee. WARHO, May 20.—The case of the state against Hanley was called up in the district court to-day, on a motion for continuance. This motion was supplemented by the defendant's affidavit, stating that for want of two material witnesses (George Forbes and John McClelland, of Omaha), who, if present, would testify that the fight did not take place for a purse, he could not safely proceed to a trial.

Directly upon the close of the argument, Judge Post overruled the motion, holding that a purse was not necessary under statute to make an offense. A motion to quiet the indictment was then filed by the defendant's attorneys. The court informed them that Hanley had lost all rights arising from technicalities or informality by entering his plea to the indictments. The case was set down peremptorily for trial to-morrow.

To all who suffer from epilepsy, cramps and nervous affection, we earnestly recommend the method so universally known and quasi-miraculous of Prof. Dr. Albert Paris, 6, Place du Trone. A Word of Warning. Editor of The Bee. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 19.—I see in your issue of the 9th inst, an article under the above caption, purporting to emanate from some ladies of Omaha, charging W. A. Pinkham and myself with having swindled them. Knowing your willingness heretofore to give every man a chance to vindicate himself, when assailed through your columns, I wish to make as brief a statement of the facts as possible.

I came to Omaha from Chicago about six weeks ago, and opened up a macarone lace establishment in Crouse's block. I worked, and then sold it out to Isaac Stryker and W. A. Pinkham, for $1500. These men run the business for, I think, just two weeks, at which time they sold the business to one George Ditzgenberger for $150. After I sold out to these men I remained in Omaha for nearly two weeks and saw that they filled their written contract with me, which was to teach all ladies macarone lace that I had contracts with, so at the time I left Omaha every lady that I agreed to teach had completed her instructions and had received material to work up from Sylvester. After Sylvester purchased the business, he then advertised for more ladies and nearly 100 responded to the call and Sylvester took their money and SHOT IN THE STOMACH. A Serious Shooting Affray at the Stock Yards Yesterday.

Mike Murphy Shot in the Stomach by William Henry, a Boarding House Keeper.

Another addition to the long list of Douglas county's crime was made yesterday, upon the grounds of the Union stock yards' company, south of this city. As far as can be learned, it is in the nature of a COLD-BLOODED MURDER, or at least an attempt at one, and an attempt which may terminate as it was intended that it should.

William Henry has been keeping a boarding-house out at the Union stock yards, and Mike Murphy, one of the laborers, has been boarding with him. Henry has been in the habit of flourishing his revolver and making THREATS TO SHOOT, and had come to be quite generally disliked throughout the camp.

Yesterday afternoon, about one o'clock, one of the men who has been boarding with Henry rushed into the boarding house of D. H. Johnson, only a few rods distant, and stated that A MAN HAD BEEN SHOT IN Henry's house, and asked for assistance.

Mr. William Hull, a carpenter, who was boarding with Johnson, at once hurried to Henry's house, and there, in a shed adjoining the house proper, found Murphy lying upon the floor, and the blood flowing from a WOUND IN HIS STOMACH.

He was picked up, and a telephone message sent to this city to Dr. Stone, who at once hastened to the scene to attend the wounded man. At the same time a telephone message was sent to the sheriff's office, and Deputy-Sheriff Crowell hurried to the place to secure the man who had done the shooting.

Immediately after committing the crime, Henry LOCKED HIMSELF UP, in his house and awaited proceedings. When the deputy sheriff reached the spot no resistance was offered, and he was at once taken in custody and brought to this city, where he was locked up in the county jail. Two young men who were boarding with Henry were present at the time of the shooting, or at least were in an adjoining room, and they also were brought in and locked up.

Dr. Stone, upon arriving at the house, examined Murphy's wounds and found that the ball had entered his left side at a point just below the short ribs and had passed CLEAR THROUGH THE BODY, and out at the right side, nearly opposite from where it entered, touching the point of the liver in its course. It is not known whether the ball passed through the stomach or not, but the doctor was of the opinion that it had not.

The wounded man was moved to Johnson's boarding house and was made as comfortable as possible. He was visited by the doctor again last evening, and reported upon his return that he thought it very doubtful if Murphy would recover. The wounded man made a statement yesterday afternoon and from the nature of it, it would seem that the shooting was unprovoked and that Henry intended to MURDER MURPHY IN COLD BLOOD, and it was no fault of his that he did not succeed.

Murphy said that on Sunday he had a slight altercation with Henry. The matter was not of a serious nature and he supposed the trouble was all settled and that no more would be said about it. Yesterday afternoon he was lying upon a bunk when Henry entered, walked up to him, drew his revolver and without a WORD OF WARNING SHOT HIM.

After shooting him, Henry walked into an adjoining room without saying a word. The men at the camp were ignorant of the trouble which led to the shooting of Murphy, but some of them volunteered to tell what they knew regarding the affair to a Bee reporter, who visited the scene last evening. One of them stated that Murphy had been drinking for several days past, and Monday evening Henry ordered him to LEAVE THE HOUSE and procure a new boarding place. Murphy left the house at that time, and yesterday morning returned to Henry's house while Henry was out, and went to sleep upon one of the bunks. Shortly after noon Henry returned to his house and found Murphy, at which time the shooting took place.

The revolver was a Remington, eight inch barrel, and 44 calibre. It is a MURDERING LOOKING weapon, and the ball which inflicted the wound is now in the possession of D. H. Johnson and is not scratched at all, showing conclusively that it did not strike a bone in its course.

THE FEELING AMONG THE MEN. The feeling among the men in the camp in regard to the shooting was very bitter against Henry, and had it not been for the fact that it was nearly time for re-ensuing work, and most of them were away, it would have been decidedly unhealthy for Henry.

Murphy, the wounded man, is about 24 years of age, a butcher by trade and his home is in Chicago. He was regarded in the camp as an inoffensive fellow and one who would not provoke a quarrel, much less do anything that would call for his murder.

Henry has retained N. J. Burnham as counsel and that gentleman visited the stock yards last evening to see what favorable points he might be able to gain for his client.

A Narrow Escape from Death by an Attack of an Enraged Cow.

Monday evening a little three-year-old girl of John Platz narrowly escaped death upon the horns of a vicious cow. THE ENRAGED ANIMAL.

She Deserts Four Small Children and Leaves Them to the Mercy of a Cold World.

It is not known to whom the cow belongs, but it is a dangerous animal to be running at large and especially so in the face of the fact that there is a law against cows running at large and a pound master appointed to see that the law is enforced.

This makes two little children attacked by vicious cows within two days, one having been severely injured in South Omaha Sunday night.

Train No. 2, on the Union Pacific road, arrived in this city yesterday morning bringing with it four small children without any one to care for or protect them. There were three girls and a boy. The youngest was about three years of age and the oldest could not be more than nine years old.

When the train left North Platte the children were on the train in company with their mother. When Central City was reached the woman came up missing and nothing is known as to what became of her. The train men say that for a long way the other side of Central City the woman was in deep consultation with a man who had a ticket for Council Bluffs and that this man also was missed when the train left Central City. It is thought the two left the train together and that the heartless mother has cast her helpless offspring upon the cruel and stormy waves of a heartless world.

At present the children are under the care of Wiley Dixon, the depot policeman, and efforts are being made to ascertain the whereabouts of the woman who has so villainously deserted them.

RATHER ONE-SIDED.

A Presbyterian Minister Deposed Without Being Given a Fair Show.

NELSON, Neb., May 19. To the Editor of The Bee.

Allow me a word in the columns of your enterprising paper in justice to myself and family.

The action of the Hastings Presbytery in deposing me from the ministry and excommunicating me from the church is unparalleled, I dare say, in the history of Presbyterianism.

I had gone to the Presbytery not knowing that any trial awaited me. I had received no citation to appear for trial, and, consequently, had no witness on hand.

I begged the Presbytery to give me a chance for defense, but this they refused to do.

The trial was held in secret and at night. It continued all night and only one side of the case was heard, and at about six o'clock in the morning a vote was taken on what had been heard on the one side, and of course the charges were sustained.

I have taken an appeal to the synod, where I expect the sentence reversed. In the meantime I shall abide the mandate of the Presbytery, and labor as an evangelist till Synod convenes.

Yours, etc. W. R. SMITH. Fete-en-tete.

The ladies of the first Congregational church gave a novel and beautiful entertainment last evening in the way of a "Chocolat" in the parlors of the church, corner of Nineteenth and Chicago streets.

The ladies in charge of the entertainment were arrayed in the costumes of yesteryear and each and every one of them were dressed in a very tasty and beautiful manner. Many of the ladies who were not dressed in costume, had their hair powdered and the effect was very pleasing to say the least.

At the door stood a youth arrayed in George Washington costume and attending to the taking of tickets. Chocolate and cake was served and numerous pretty misses induced the gentlemen in attendance to adorn the lapel of their coats with a button-hole bouquet, for which they were requested to pay twenty-five cents. The floral decorations were very fine as was also their numerous booths or stalls.

The affair was a success in every particular.

Failure at St. Paul, Nebraska. Bradstreet reported yesterday the failure of Geo. L. Harrison, general store of St. Paul, Howard county. Mr. Harrison commenced business there in August of last year, having formerly been in the same business at Terre Haute, Indiana, and Chicago. It is reported to have given a mortgage on all his property to the bank, which was foreclosed yesterday leaving a number of merchandise creditors unsecured. We also learn that a number of Omaha houses are interested and have placed their claims in attorneys hands.
